Great River Arts

The mission of Great River Arts is to create and sustain a New England-based arts center to support and nurture visual and literary artists and provide regional youth programs. Great River Arts is a non-profit organization dedicated to bringing faculty from the literary and visual arts disciplines to teach in the Connecticut River Valley and other select locations.

Great River Arts is proud to partner with Water for People to support the development of locally sustainable hygienic drinking water resources and sanitation facilities in developing countries throughout the world.

Great River Arts is a 501(C)(3) organization, and its policies and practices are in accordance with Federal and state laws.
